

Antananarivo power outages

Madagascar authorities imposed a curfew from 7 p.m. to 5 a.m. on Thursday in the capital Antananarivo after protests over chronic power and water outages escalated into violence, ...

Authorities in Madagascar have imposed a dusk-to-dawn curfew in the capital, Antananarivo, following protests against frequent power outages and water shortages that turned ...

Anger over chronic water and electricity shortages has exploded into deadly unrest in Madagascar, prompting a night-time curfew in the capital. At least five people were killed in mass ...

Why do water cuts and power outages persist in Antananarivo? The main causes lie in a lack of investment, poor management, and uncontrolled urban growth, exacerbated by often-criticized ...

Antananarivo's internet network has been weakened by weeks of frequent outages due to severe fuel supply problems and recurring technical glitches. The disruptions have sparked anger ...

On 25 September, at dusk, Antananarivo went dark. Mothers lit candles to cook dinner; children did their homework by phone light. By midnight, thousands were in the streets, demanding ...

In Madagascar, citizens' patience has officially run out. The capital, Antananarivo, has been the scene of violent clashes that have transformed protests over chronic power outages and ...

Madagascar is facing its most serious political crisis in years, as protests over prolonged power outages and water shortages have erupted into deadly violence.

The government of Madagascar enacted a strict nighttime curfew on Thursday after widespread protests over chronic water and power outages escalated, leading to violent clashes, looting, and...

Antananarivo power outages

Web: <https://kgangkologrp.co.za>

