

World solar challenge winners

ADELAIDE, Australia (31 October, 2023) -- Bridgestone Corporation has celebrated the success of the 2023 Bridgestone World Solar Challenge (BWSC) and the competitive debut of an ENLITEN ...

CRUISER CLASS 1 Sunswift Racing University of New South Wales Australia 2 University of Minnesota Solar Vehicle Project United States of America 3 Solaride SolarCar Estonia MTÜ Estonia

More competitors finished than in 2023 - an outstanding result considering the new winter timeslot, less sun and strong winds. Catch up on daily updates and the final event wrap. Catch up on ...

The Sophie 8X, a student-built solar-powered EV from the Vocational Training Council (VTC) in Hong Kong, has claimed victory in the Cruiser class of the 2025 Bridgestone World Solar ...

The Belgian Innoptus Solar Team formerly known as the Agoria Solar Team from KU Leuven University won in 2019 and 2023. Remarkable technological progress has been achieved since the General ...

The objective of the challenge is to promote the innovation of solar-powered cars. It is a design competition at its core, and every team/car that successfully crosses the finish line is considered successful. Teams from universities and enterprises participate. In 2015, 43 teams from 23 countries competed in the challenge. Except Nuna team and cars from Delft University of Technology (Netherlands), team from Delft University of Technology (Netherlands), known as the Nuna team and cars, have won e...

Hungary's Neumann, Swiss aCentauri, Sweden's Chalmers, and Japan's Kogakuin and Osaka, all crossed the finish line triumphant on Friday. In the new look Cruiser class judging ...

The Bridgestone World Solar Challenge acknowledges the Traditional Owners of the Countries where our event takes place, and pays its respect to Elders past and present.

Dutch team Brunel has been crowned the winners of the 2025 World Solar Challenge after a five-day marathon race across the Australian outback.

Stay up to date with the latest news from the Bridgestone World Solar Challenge.

The following are the results of the 2023 event and the winning teams from the past 10 years.

World solar challenge winners

Web: <https://kgangkologrp.co.za>

